

COMMENCED AUG. 8, 1837.

ST. JOHNSBURY, VERMONT WEDNESDAY, NOVEMBER 27, 1901.

VOL. LXV--NO. 3359

CLOTHING INSURANCE. EXTRAORDINARY MEN.

In the breast pocket of the high grade C. & B. Suit and Overcoat we sell our insurance policy for that garment. It is the label of the manufacturers. It is their guarantee that the garment is made of honest materials, carefully tailored. If that garment doesn't wear better than other clothing at the same price, you can have your money back.

Sometimes nature is unkind. She allows a man to grow all one way or too little in any way makes him taller or shorter or stouter or thinner than specifications call for. Such men imagine they are hard to fit, they are in some lines of clothing, but not C. & B. garments. We make such men think they are not so hard to fit after all.

Our Boys' Clothing

can be worn out in time, but it will give the youngster a good tussle.

Great Overcoat

It matters not what may appear, not one white how smart nor extreme in clothing, we'll have it, and right now you have the best chance in the world of finding what you want at our store.

CROUSE & BRANDEGEE
Manufacturing Tailors
Union, New York

There isn't such a thing as high-priced clothes, properly speaking, for whether you pay $10 or $50 if the store does right you should get value received. This can't be done on poorly made and cheaply tailored suits and overcoats.

The Brooks-Tyler Dry Goods Co.
FOR LADIES WHO COOK
AND ALL WHO EAT :.

This week the management of the Carnival and Food Fair desire to call special attention to the Practical Side of the Enterprise.

In the first place remember that
MISS NELLIE DOT RANCHE
is one of the leading authorities on Scientific Cooking in the world.

Then consider that she will give a course of six afternoon lectures with demonstrations, and that each lecture costs only 15c., and the entire course only 75c.

Miss Dot Ranche's Subjects:
Monday—Receptions and some suggestions for a Blue day.
Tuesday—Salads and Salad Dressing.
Wednesday—Luncheon and Luncheon Menu.
Thursday—Bread and Cake.
Friday—Sea Food, Fish and Meats.
Saturday—Small Companies and the Chafing Dish.
Course Tickets will be for sale by a committee of ladies.

OTHER FEATURES.
The booths will be numerous and beautiful.
The electric display will be magnificent.
Thousands of valuable articles will be given away.
The evening entertainments will be the 50 cent kind marked down to 15 cents.

MUSIC HALL St. Johnsbury, Dec. 9-14.
Afternoons, 2 to 6. Evenings, 7.30 to 10.30.

ONE-HALF COST.

What I advertise, I always perform. Do you know of anything to the contrary? Example: $1,000.00 Fire Insurance in the residential part of the village, will cost in any Stock Company $100.00 for 5 years. I can place this same insurance in a first class Mass. Mutual Co. that has been in business for 73 years, and that has a good surplus of nearly half a million dollars, for this exact sum, and on the experience of many years will return you $500.00 at the end of the term in a cash dividend. Is this worth saving or not?
A one year policy will return 20 per cent, and a three years 30 per cent on the exact stock rates. Investigate and be convinced that what I say, I stand ready to prove.

LOCAL GATHERINGS.

—E. N. Randall is in Boston purchasing Christmas goods.

—The Museum will be closed on Thanksgiving day.

—E. L. Stanley, proprietor of the Avenue stable, has put up an attractive sign.

B. W. Livingston is to move from Railroad street to the tenement in J. C. Gray's house on Spring street.

—Fifteen ladies took the examination for teachers held Friday and Saturday by County Examiner Taylor.

—Until Jan. 1 Bralley will attach a pair of rubber heels free to every pair of men's or women's shoes sold for $3.00 or more.

—The St. Johnsbury Wood Yard has purchased, through O. V. Hooker & Son, a five horse power gasoline engine to replace the horse power plant now in use at the yard.

—Landlord Black of the Avenue House is making preparations for a special Thanksgiving dinner as usual, and has arranged for private tables for families and dinner parties.

—There is a fine exhibit of views of English country houses in the art gallery of the Athenaeum. There are 100 photographs in the collection and the exhibit will be there until Dec. 15.

—Miss Winifred E. Rowell has on exhibition in L. F. Frye's window an attractive collection of Italian art work from a well known Boston studio, which she has placed on sale for the holidays.

—Lounge Brothers and Smythe have a very attractive Thanksgiving window display in the shape of a dining room with a fire place in the background and a table displaying linen and hand painted china.

—E. & T. Fairbanks & Co. began Saturday to pay their employees semi-monthly. The change was made voluntarily by the corporation and is not the result of any suggestions or demands from the scale makers.

—We advertise this week a new edition of Webster's international dictionary, with new plates throughout. It is in rich bindings, with 5000 illustrations, and we will tell you more about it in our advertisement next week.

—There was a celebration of the feast of St. Cecilia at the convent Friday. An interesting musical program was carried out by the pupils, and there was a very enjoyable presentation of a short comedy entitled "Piffie."

—The regular meeting of the Woman's Club will be held Monday afternoon at 3 o'clock at Pythian Hall, in charge of the music committee. Club stationery may be obtained at the meeting. Executive Board meeting at two o'clock.

—At the annual meeting of the Commandery of Vermont, Loyal Legion, held at Burlington, Tuesday evening of last week, Col. G. G. Benedict of Burlington read a memorial of the late Dr. G. B. Bullard, who was a member of the commandery.

—Rickaby & Co. have sold for George C. Cary the George R. Drew farm which adjoins Lookout Farm at North Danville. It was purchased by Charles Weeks, owner of the Riverside Farm. Mr. Cary takes in the trade a 60 acre pasture in Wheelock which belonged to Mr. Weeks.

—The Round Table of the South church met Monday evening in the parlors of the church and enjoyed a musical programme arranged by B. Frank Harris. There was a large attendance and several new members were added to the club.

Refreshments were served after the meeting.

—These are the advertised letters at the post office for the week ending Nov. 23: Fuller, Mrs. Edgar A.; Joslyn, Miss Myrtie; Lang, Miss Lucy; Perreault, Mrs. M.; Rowe, Miss Maude; Sanborn, Mrs. John; Smith, Mrs. Harry C.; Cormier, Fred; Jackson, E. S.; Nichols, Ned; Thumke, F.; Turner, Hon. John E.

—The box party and musical social given by St. Johnsbury Court, C. O. F., at St. Agnes' Hall Wednesday evening was a pleasant success. The boxes were sold at auction and a good sum was realized. The newly organized orchestra appeared in public for the first time on this occasion and their playing was greatly enjoyed.

—The W. R. C. ice pitcher contest closed Thursday evening, Brightlook Hospital receiving the gift. A social was held at G. A. R. Hall on that evening, when the result was announced, and a program of music and reading was rendered. In the spelling contest, which was a feature of the entertainment, Mrs. S. W. Hall received the prize.

—The musical entertainment at Music Hall tomorrow evening for the benefit of St. Johnsbury Hospital is worthy of a large patronage, not only because the object is a very commendable one but the entertainment itself promises to be one of exceptional interest. In addition to the program which was published last week, Hon. W. P. Smith will deliver an address.

—The first week of the mission by the Paulist Fathers at St. Aloysius church was very successful. There was a large attendance at all the meetings and an unusual interest was taken in the work. This week is devoted to a series of lectures for non-Catholics an outline of which was published last week. There was a good attendance Monday and Tuesday evenings and the services are proving very interesting.

—At the Merchants' Association meeting Tuesday evening of last week 74 new names were added to the cash customer list and ten names were taken from the list, since October 15. Forty-seven new members had been added to the association; two in Barret, 21 in Bellows Falls, one in Lyndon, four in Lyndonville, 12 in Rutland, two in Saxton's River, one in St. Johnsbury Center, two in St. Johnsbury, one in West Burke, and one in Alstead, N. H.

—The rummage sale closed Friday night with an auction conducted by W. H. Preston. The sale continued three days and netted $100 for Brightlook Hospital. The ladies who had charge of the sale put in lots of hard work and the response for gifts was most generous, local merchants as well as housekeepers contributing articles. Mr. Gauthier made no charge for the rent of the room and others who furnished work or material were as generous.

The School Teacher's Creed.

The School Journal publishes in a recent issue "The School Teachers' Creed," written by Edwin O. Grover and copyrighted by Alfred Bartlett of Boston. Mr. Grover is in Chicago with the educational department of Rand, McNally & Co., and is well remembered here as he was graduated from the Academy in the class of '90. The creed is as follows:

"I believe in boys and girls, the men and women of a great tomorrow; that whatever the boy soweth the man shall reap. I believe in the curse of ignorance, in the efficacy of schools, in the dignity of teaching, and in the joy of serving others. I believe in wisdom as revealed in human lives as well as in the pages of a printed book, in lessons taught, not so much by precept as by example, in ability to work with the hands as well as to think with the head, in everything that makes life large and lovely. I believe in beauty in the school-room, in the home, in daily life, and in out-of-doors. I believe in laughter, in love, in faith, in all ideals and distant hopes that lure us on. I believe that every hour of every day we receive a just reward for all we are and all we do. I believe in the present and its opportunities, in the future and its promises, and in the divine joy of living. Amen."

Thanksgiving Service.

As announced last week the Thanksgiving service this year will be given in the North church at 7.30 o'clock tonight. The clergy and the Choral Union render the service, which is as follows:

Voluntary, "Marche Religieuse," Guilmant
"Soldier's Chorus," Gounod
Responsive Reading of Psalm 146, Maunder
"Praise the Lord, O Jerusalem,"
Scripture Reading, Handel
Hallelujah Chorus from "The Messiah," Handel

Prayer, "A. L. Gend," Tchaikowsky

Offering, Hymn 805, REV. E. M. CHAPMAN

"Gallia," Gounod

Benediction, "Marche de Pate," Clausmann

An offering will be made at this service the proceeds of which will go into the Choral Union treasury.

RECENT DEATHS.

Trainor.

Anne Fitzpatrick, wife of Patrick Trainor, died at her home on Main street shortly after noon, Friday. She has been ill for several weeks but her condition was not considered serious until October 30, when she became suddenly worse. The cause of her death was gastric fever. Mrs. Trainor was born in Kilkenny, Ireland 68 years ago. Her father died there, and her mother and eleven children came to America in 1847, landing at Quebec. Two years later Anne came to St. Johnsbury and has lived here continuously since that time.

She was married at Montpelier in 1852 to Mr. Trainor, who survives her. She was the mother of six children: One son, Thomas, died when a child, and Emma, wife of Dr. P. F. Brassard, formerly of this place. She also leaves two sisters, Mrs. Hugh Smith of Berlin Falls, N. H., and Mrs. Peter Landry of this town. All of her immediate family were with her when she died. The funeral was held at St. Aloysius church Monday morning and was largely attended. The services being conducted by her pastor, Rev. J. A. Lynch, who spoke eloquently and feelingly of her life and work. The Lamperti quartette sang appropriate selections. The bearers were Edward Ling, T. J. Tierney, P. M. Leonard and W. F. Welch.

Among those from out of town who attended the funeral were, Mrs. Edward McGee and son Edward of Berlin Falls, and Mrs. Trainor's nephew, John Landry of Montreal. Mrs. Trainor was a woman who was above all devoted to her family and most of her life has been spent in earnest devotion to her home and children, but notwithstanding this she found time to devote to helping many who might need her aid. She was one of the pioneer Catholics of St. Johnsbury, and was a devoted member of Notre Dame church and after the organization of St. Aloysius parish she became one of the leading members of that church.

She was exceedingly liberal in all matters of charity and good works, regardless of church or creed. She has served as a vice-president of the Woman's Club and at the time of her death was vice-president of the Veronica League of St. Aloysius church. The sympathy of the entire community will be extended to Mr. Trainor and his children, while they mourn the loss of a true wife and mother.

Belanger.

Mrs. Mary Belanger, wife of Edward Belanger, died Wednesday aged 50 years. She was a devoted member of Notre Dame church and her death will be mourned by many friends who will sympathize with her family in their bereavement. She leaves beside her husband, two daughters, Mrs. Joseph Legendre and Mrs. Darce, and one son Frank, all of whom reside in Hartford, Conn. The funeral was held Saturday from Notre Dame church.

Captain Lawton Relieved.

The "Manila Freedom" has the following concerning Captain Frank H. Lawton of this place:

"Captain Frank H. Lawton, commissary U. S. army, who has been assigned as sales commissary in Manila for the past year has been relieved from duty in that capacity and will report to Colonel Woodruff, chief commissary, for assignment to duty. Captain Lawton has served in his position as sales commissary faithfully and has the commendation of all his superior officers. His position has been difficult, and his duties onerous, but he has labored early and late and has the department in a high state of efficiency. Captain Lawton, will probably receive a well earned leave of absence which he will spend with Mrs. Lawton, in the United States."

Captain Lawton has been granted leave of absence with permission to visit the United States and with Mrs. Lawton he is now on the Pacific, homeward bound. His parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. D. Lawton, expect that they will spend Christmas here.

Summerville.

J. E. Baker of Whitefield visited at H. C. Bond's last week.

Morton Hazeltine finishes work for A. P. Ladd today.

Frank King has moved from Elm street to St. Mary's street.

The Summerville school closes tonight for Thanksgiving opening again Monday.

Mrs. Frank Blossom is visiting in Portsmouth.

A. J. Burdick and family have moved to Barret where he has a position as a painter in the Barret Wagon Co's. factory.

Mr. and Mrs. C. A. Chadbourne will go to Derby to spend Thanksgiving. Mrs. Chadbourne will spend a week with friends in that vicinity.

Mrs. Fannie I. Giffin leaves for Laconia today to spend the remainder of the week with her son, George.

Thanksgiving Ball.

The concert and dance to be given at the Armory Thanksgiving night promises to be one of the leading social events of the season. The presence of Wilder's Orchestral Club of Montpelier, assures first class music and the concert from 8 to 9 will be well worth hearing. Program for this was given in our issue of last week.

Church Notes.

First Church of Christ, Scientist, Odd Fellows' block, Sunday morning service, at 10.45. Subject, "God the only Cause and Creator." Sunday school following the morning service. Wednesday evening meeting at 7.30. The reading room is open on Wednesday from 2 to 5.

The pastor of the Free Baptist church will preach next Sunday morning upon "Christ's Courage and Constancy in His Conquest of the World." Theme for the evening service, "The King's Children." Father Foullet, superior of the new College of the Sacred Heart at Swanton, is coming to assist in the 40 hours devotion service which begins Sunday at Notre Dame church.

Father Marceau of Notre Dame church is conducting a mission at Miles Pond this week.

In the Advent Christian church Sunday at 10.30 a. m., the subject of the discourse will be "Divine Sonship." Sunday school exercises from 12 to 1 o'clock. The evening service will open with praise and prayer, at 6.30. "What constitutes a Revival of true Religion," will be considered by the pastor and members of the church.

At the Church of the Messiah the pastor, Rev. Mr. Welch, will preach on the topic: "What is a Universalist? What reason have we for our faith? Is it a reasonable faith? What makes a consistent creed?"

The subject of discourse at the First Baptist church Sunday morning will be "Lessons from the Experiences of Israel's Singing King." In the evening "The Christian's Answer to the Philippians' Question." A series of gospel services will begin on Wednesday evening, Dec. 4, and continue every evening until Wednesday, Dec. 11. The singing evangelist, Rev. G. W. Clough, will sing and preach at each service and also Sunday morning, Dec. 8. Three persons were received into membership Wednesday evening.

The topic of the sermon at the North church Sunday night will be "The Prayer of the Strangers."

The subject of the morning service at Grace Methodist church next Sunday will be "The Superior Rock." In the evening the pastor will give the seventh address in the series on New Testament common people saints. Subject, "The Beggar at the Crucifixion." The regular week night service will be held tomorrow evening.

School Notes.

The Thanksgiving recess extends from Thursday to Monday.

The Goss Hollow school is closed this week because of the illness of the teacher, Miss Pearl.

Mrs. Walter P. Smith spoke briefly at the Teachers' Convention at Burlington last week on the question of traveling libraries.

The Burlington News speaks as follows of the drawing exhibit from our public schools: "The St. Johnsbury exhibit is a fine collection of nature studies in colors, silhouettes and freehand drawing. There is also an original ad. design. The tasteful cover design for the novelette, 'Wed to a Lunatic,' which was made by Hortense Peters, a little girl in the St. Johnsbury public schools, is also much admired."

Misses Edith M. Nichols, Beatrice May, Amy Drake, Lucy M. Sinclair and Mrs. J. W. Sault attended the teachers' convention at Burlington last week.

The schools in the Summerville building were closed last Friday and the teachers visited other schools.

Athletic Novelty.

The Y. M. C. A. Junior gym class of 15 boys, appearing at one of the novelty entertainments given in the armory, December 5th, 6th and 7th, will present under the personal direction of Sec. McGown a distinct novelty in their grotesque acrobatics specialty entitled "Uncle Si and his Boys," introducing various athletic feats. They will also give as a most laughable feature a "Novel Farmers' Drill," appearing in the quaintest and most laughable costumes. The boys have worked hard and under Mr. McGown's direction have prepared a unique and laughable act, and every one should see this most pleasing feature which appears but one evening. One of the daintiest and cutest acts appearing in the novelty entertainments will be Misses Elsie Sargent and Marion Smythe, featuring the greatest child song ever written, "Stay in your own back yard," with complete costume. Special attention is called to Mrs. Della Brown, the young mulatto trombone soloist, who appears with the Ladies' Colored Military Band, Dec. 5, 6 and 7, the youngest colored lady player in the world.

Conjunction of the Planets.

It is not often that one can see three planets so close together and the sight in the southwestern sky is well worth noticing. Venus, Jupiter and Saturn form the group and the two last named will come into conjunction Thanksgiving morning, so that Jupiter will be but slightly to the west of Saturn on the evening of the 27th, and to the east of Saturn on the evening of the 28th. Venus has already receded to the east of Saturn. The interesting pursuit of Jupiter by Saturn has given especial interest to the skies for more than six months, and everybody will be sorry to miss the spectacle.
